

The Pine River Nature Center presents:

Featuring a large flying fox and more!

Bats OF THE World

Saturday, Oct. 11, 2-3 p.m.

Join us in welcoming the Organization for Bat Conservation to the nature center

Bats have been surrounded by myths for years; it is time to learn the truth! Investigate the many amazing features of bats such as echolocation, flight and feeding habits. Explore the unique roles these nocturnal mammals play in our world. Meet live bats and get inspired to protect these misunderstood creatures.

COST: $3 per person. Registration required.

This event is funded by a grant from Critter Catchers, Inc., a company committed to providing humane bat removal, and the Organization for Bat Conservation.
