Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm is presenting Evening Nature Talk and Walk

The Rochester Hills Museum at Van Hoosen Farm will be co-presenting Evening Nature Talk and Walk from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. at the Museum on Saturday, August 25th. Admission for this environmental program is free for Members of the Rochester Hills Museum and $5 for adults, $3 for kids, and $3 for seniors for non-members. Critter Catchers Inc. will be sponsoring the Organization for Bat Conservation LIVE nocturnal animal show from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. From 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. the Museum staff will be leading some fun outdoor activities. The deadline to register for Evening Nature Talk and Walk is Monday, August 20th.

The Rochester Hills Museum is located at 1005 Van Hoosen Road, off Tienken Road between Rochester and Dequindre Roads. To register for Evening Nature Talk and Walk call (248) 656-4663 or e-mail rhmuseum@rochesterhills.org.

Organization for Bat Conservation is dedicated to protecting bats, other wildlife, and the ecosystems they need to survive. They have the largest grass-roots bat conservation education program in the United States, presenting more than 1,500 live shows to over 250,000 people annually. They also work with the media to educate people about key conservation projects. Bat experts give interviews on topics such as bats and rabies, white-nose syndrome, nuisance bats, bat houses, and Bats and Wind Power.

Critter Catchers Inc. provides prompt and professional animal control solutions to wildlife matters in SE Michigan. Our strategies provide a solution that can free your residence from wildlife such as bats, mice and other critters.
